PSALM OF DAVID - KING OF ISRAEL BELOVED OF YAH

Psalms 116:1 I love YHWH, because he listens to my voice, and my cries for mercy. Because he has turned his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live. The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of She'ol got a hold of me. I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I on the NAME YHWH: " I beg you, deliver my soul." Gracious is YHWH and righteous; yes, our G-d is merciful. YHWH preserves the simple. I was brought low, and he saved me. Return to your rest, my soul, for YHWH has dealt bountifully with you. For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before YHWH in the land of the living. I believed, therefore I said, "I was greatly afflicted.

I said in my haste, "All men are liars." What will I give to YHWH for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of the YHWH. I will pay my vows to YHWH, yes, in the presence of all his people. Precious in the sight of YHWH is the death of his holy ones. YHWH truly I am your servant. I am your servant, the son of your handmaid. You have freed me from my chains. I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, AND I WILL CALL ON THE NAME OF YHWH.

PROPHECY OF KING DAVID SAID - THAT ONE WOULD COME AND DECLARE YHWH'S TRUE NAME TO HIS BROTHERS

Psalm 22:22 I will declare
Your Name YHWH to My brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise
You, who fear YHWH, praise
Him; all of you, the seed of Jacob, glorify Him and fear
Him all the seed of Israel.

Yahshua Fulfilled Prophecy – When He Broke The Prohibitive Ban Of Not Being Allowed To Use YHWH's True Biblical Name

Yochannan/John 17:5-8 Now Father, glorify Me with Yourself with the glory which I had with You before the world was. I have revealed Your Name (YHWH) to my brothers whom You gave to Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. Now they have known that all things, whatever You have given Me, are from You. For I have given to them the Words which You gave Me, and they have received them and have known surely that I came out from You. And they have believed that You sent Me.

THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

The Messiyah forcefully condemned the religious leaders of his day for concealing the "key" that unlocked the door to scriptural knowledge:

Woe to you, the experts in the Torah (Scriptures), for you took away the key of knowledge; yourselves did not enter, and those who were entering you hindered. (Luke 11:52)

This "key," as our investigation shall demonstrate, was the knowledge and use of the creator's personal name-the sacred name Yahweh. Despite the heavy emphasis placed by the Scriptures upon both the knowledge and use of the sacred name, popular Christian dogma ignores it, Jewish Talmudic traditions forbid its use and ordered its concealment, and the Moslem faith denies its importance. Yet all claim the works of Moshe and the prophets, who were the tenacious advocates of the sacred name, as a foundation upon which their religions are built.

YAHSHUA BEARS HIS FATHERS NAME

The Messiah's own name means "YAHWEH is Salvation," and he thus carries the true Name of the Creator God in his own name. The following Scriptures show, without a doubt, that Yahshua and the writers of the New Testament used the Divine Name:

MATITYAHU 6:9: You, therefore, pray like this: "Our Father in heaven! May YOUR NAME be kept holy."

YOHANNAN 5:43: I have come in my FATHER'S NAME, and you don't accept me; if someone else comes in his own name, him you will accept.

YOHANNAN 12:28: "Father, glorify YOUR NAME!" At this a bat-kol [heavenly voice] came out of heaven, "I have glorified it before, and I will glorify it again!"

YOHANNAN 17:6: "I made YOUR NAME known to the people you gave me out of the world. They were yours, you gave them to me, and they have kept your word."

YOCHANNAN 17:26: "I have made YOUR NAME known to them, and I will continue to make it known..."

HEBREWS 2:11-12: For both Yahshua, who sets people apart for YHWH and the ones being set apart have a common origin -- this is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers when he says, "I will proclaim YOUR NAME to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."

REVELATION 3:12: I will make him who wins the victory a pillar in the Temple of my YAHUWAH, and he will never leave it. Also I will write on him THE NAME OF MY YHWH and the name of my YAHUWAH's city, the new Yerushalayim coming down out of heaven from my YAH, and my own NEW NAME.

REVELATION 22:4: They will see his face, and HIS NAME will be on their foreheads.

In view of all this, when the Messiah quoted the Hebrew Scriptures -- or read from them -- he most certainly used the Divine Name, YAHWEH. Therefore, logically, Yahshua's disciples, including the inspired writers of the New Testament, would follow his example in this.

All things came into being through Him, and without Him not even one thing came into being that has come into being. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 1:14 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us. And we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and of truth.

GABRIEL DECLARED TO MIRYAM YOU SHALL HAVE A SON AND CALL HIM YAHSHUA - INTERPRETED MEANS THE SALVATION OF YHWH

Luke 1:26-33 And the angel said to her, Do not fear, Miriam/ Mary, for you have found favor with YHWH and behold! You shall conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call His name 'Yahshua' Salvation יהושע

He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest. And YHWH shall give Him the throne of His father David. And He shall reign over the House of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end.

Yahshua was not named by Miriam and Yoseph. Rather, Yahshua's name was divinely given by the angel Gabriel who was sent by Yahweh to Miriam with the message of the birth of Yahshua (Elior/Luke 1:26-35). Yahweh named His Son and ordained His Son to carry the only name under Heaven by which man can be saved: (Acts 4:12)

"Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved." Yahweh ordained His Son to carry the name of His own power and authority, and no common earthly name would do.

THE BASIC REASONS THAT TRANSLATORS REMOVED G-D'S NAME FROM THE BIBLE :

Anti-Semitic Feelings - The Jewish G-d of the Jewish Messiah was hated and despised by the Greeks and Romans. When Christianity became a State Religion of Rome after 303AD - All attempts to blot out the Hebrew origins of Yahshua (Jesus) were employed - and Removing YHWH's Name from the Bible was a major attempt to obscure Yahshuas' Jewish heritage.

Support of Trinitarian Doctrine- When Rome voted to adopt the Trinity doctrine of the numerous Pagans in her empire - The Name of God - YHWH (translated Jehovah in English) - interfered and hindered the Newly Adopted teaching That Yahshua was the Almighty G-d - YHWH. Rome paid her translators to remove YHWH's name almost Seven Thousand Times (7,000) from the Bible.

WHY DID THE EARLY CHURCH CHANGE THE NAMES OF YHWH AND HIS SON YAHSHUA

Early followers of Yahshua were called "the way" because they were followers of Yahweh. The growing mirage of translations of the original letters and Scriptures took out the name of Yahweh and replaced it with the general titles/terms LORD, GOD, FATHER.

In the KJV when you see a name in all capital letters it means it wasn't the original term, that when they translated it they changed it.

The Name of Yahweh has been taken out of "His" Word for almost 2000 years! His Name is Yahweh (YHWH). You will also see Jesus capitalized to Lord. Because it was not the original term. Jesus was translated from the Latin Yesu, Yehoshua. His real name was Yahshua.

People do spell and pronounce it differently, Yeshua, Y'shua, Yehoshua.

The original Jewish followers of Y'hoshua/Yahshua, that is, the sect of the N'tsarim (popularly, though erroneously rendered as Nazarenes) were, like all other Jewish sects at the time, zealous of Torah and continued to live by the mitsvot of Moshe as well as the Jewish traditions(see Acts 21:20-24 and elsewhere), a fact implicit in their very name - N'tsarim, from the root word 'natsar'(No. 5341 in Strong's) meaning to obey, observe, to guard; to the Semitic ear, so fond of word association, this name would be immediately linked to the Jewish term "Notsray HaTorah" keepers or guardians of the Law (see also Hebrew text of Jer.31:6).

Accordingly, the question arises, would the original Jewish - N'tsarim scribes have been any less scrupulous in preserving the Sacred Name when first recording the life and teachings of Y'hoshua in their Hebrew or Aramaic documents?

It seems most unlikely, the divine name YHWH was and is the most sacred word in the Hebrew language, and so it is inconceivable that religious Jews of a sort would have removed it from any of their religious documents. How then did the 'erasing' of the Sacred Name in the Greek NT come about? Written By Just Give Me The Truth

PART 2A

WHERE DID THE
NAME OF YAHSHUA
COME FROM AND
WHY WAS IT CHANGED?

YEHOSHUA MEANS – YAHWEH SAVES

In Nehemiah 8:17, Yehoshua is written as יֵשׁוּעַ or Yahshua, which is 'Jesus' real name.

Indeed, the Book of Yehoshua in the Greek Septuagint Old Testament is entitled Ἰησοῦς (Jesus)! Both Yehoshua and Yahshua mean the same thing - "Yahweh saves."

"Yehoshua Ben Nun, who was formed to be in his days a great deliverer for his chosen ones" (יהושע שועה (בן נון... אשר נוצר להיות בימיו (wikipedia) גדלה לבחיריו).

According to the Book of Numbers verse 13:16, the name of Yehoshua son of Nun was originally Hoshea' הוֹשֵׁעַ, and the name "Yehoshua'" יְהוֹשֻׁעַ is usually spelled the same but with a yod added at the beginning.

The name Yehoshua has the form of a compound of "Yeho-" and "shua": Yeho- יְהוֹ is another form of יְהוֹ Yahu, a theophoric element standing for the name of G-D) יהוה the Tetragrammaton YHWH, sometimes transcribed into English as Yahweh or Yehovah), and שׁוּעָ shua' is a noun meaning "a cry for help", "a saving cry", that is to say, a shout given when in need of rescue. Together, the name would then literally mean, shout to YEHOWAH when in need of help.

Another explanation for the name Yehoshua is that it comes from the root יָשַׁע yod-shin-'ayin, meaning "to deliver, save, or rescue".

"Jehovah" is a hybrid name manufactured as a result of a fear to pronounce the sacred Name Yahweh. Jehovah is the result of a further derailment in the convoluted efforts to avoid the Name Yahweh. Scholars all know that Jehovah could not be the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton YHWH used for the Name of the Creator in the oldest available manuscripts.

In the preface to the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, pp. 6-7, is the following about "Jehovah": The form Jehovah is of late medieval origin; it is a combination of the consonants of the Divine Name and the vowels attached to it by the Masoretes but belonging to an entirely different word. The sound of Y is represented by J and the sound of W by V, as in Latin. The word "Jehovah" does not accurately represent any form of the Name ever used in Hebrew.

The pronunciation 'Jehovah' is an error resulting among Christians from combining the consonants YHWH with the vowels of 'adonay.'

Furthermore we know his name could never be Jehovah because there is no J in the Hebrew alphabet.

The J Develops

Around 1000 B.C. The Phoenicians and other Semites of Syria and Palestine began to use a graphic sign in the forms. They gave it the name yodh, meaning "hand," and used it for a semi consonant, y as in English boy, boys.

After 900 B.C. the Greeks borrowed The sign from the Phoenicians, using at first various angular versions and then a simplified form. They also changed its name to iota and made it stand for their vowel i. The Greek form passed unchanged via Etruscan to the Roman alphabet

The Romans used the sign both for the vowel i and for the semi consonant y, as in IECIT. When subsequently the need arose to differentiate the two sounds, an unsystematic habit grew up of adding a tail to the i for the semi consonant, as in the late Roman and medieval Uncial and Cursive.

THERE IS NO J IN HEBREW

The distinction was not fully established until the 17th century, when the capital and small letter took their modern forms. The dot on the small letter was carried over from the letter i. American Heritage Dictionary.

Because the letter J derived from the I, and had the same sound, it was classed as a vowel. The letter I comes from the Greek "iota," which is the Hebrew "yothe." Both have a vowel sound.

There is no "J" sound in the Anglo-Saxon, let alone Hebrew, and no Roman form to work from. The J was first pronounced as the I until the printing press was introduced. Gradually the letter J acquired its own sound through French influence.

The sacred Name is forever, a memorial that Yahweh says He is to be remembered by from generation to generation. "And Yahweh said moreover unto Moses, 'Thus shall you say unto the children of Israel, "Yahweh, the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob, has sent me unto you:" this is My Name forever, and this is My memorial unto all generations,' "

Exodus 3:15. (Note ALL generations)

Knowing what the true names are is not enough, however. Once they are proved and accepted as correct, they must be used. James 4:17 reads, "So then, to the person who knows what is right to do and fails to do it, to him it is sin," Yahweh has revealed His Name and His Son's through a Hebrew-speaking people down through history. His Name has meaning and describes His attributes. "Yahweh" means that He will be all things to His people. He will be whatever they need of Him at the time. He will be our comforter, strengthener, guide, protector, healer, provider; in fact, He will be whatever we as His children need. He has already become our salvation through His Son, Yahsha, the salvation Yahweh has sent to earth for you and me.

We have a closer walk with Yahweh when we call upon His personal, holy Name that He has revealed to those with whom He is in covenant. Our fellowship is with those of like faith who have called upon His sacred Name down through the years, from righteous Abel to Noah, Abraham, and the Israelites of long ago. Eventually the whole family in heaven and earth will be the Name of the Father, Yahweh, Ephesians 3:15. How can you be accounted worthy to bear the Name Yahweh, and be sealed with His Name (Rev. 14:1), if you refuse to use it now?

CHRISTIANS?
CHRISTIANITY?
CHRIST?
JESUS?

Those titles don't sound very Hebrew!?

The Origin of the word Christ & Christian

- The words Christ and Christian were originally spelled Chrest and Chrestian. These words originate from pagan terms used in antiquity. We are going to look into the pagan words from where the terms Chrest and Chrestian derived.
- First some definitions:
- Pythian god: Deriving from the word 'python', a Pythian god is mythological Roman deity who delivers prophecies.
- Oracle: A priest or priestess acting as a medium through whom advice or prophecy was sought from the Pythian gods in classical antiquity.
- Soothsayer: One who can foresee the future, or a fortune teller.

- The Manteumata pythoCHRESTA: The oracles delivered by a pythian god.
- CHRESTerion: Not only "the seat of an oracle", but an offering to, or for, the oracle.
- CHRESTes: One who explains oracles, "a prophet and soothsayer",
- CHRESTerios: One who serves an oracle or a god.

- CHRESTos: A disciple on probation or a candidate for hierophantship (a teacher of holy things). When someone had attained to this through initiation, long trials, and suffering, they would then be 'anointed'.
- CHRISTos or CHRIST: Literally signifying one who has been "anointed." This is a direct reference to what occurred during the pagan celebrations. Unction or anointing was one of the acts performed during the working of the rites of those ancient rituals, in the countries surrounding the Mediterranean Sea. This title of 'Christ' was given to a plethora of pagan deities in antiquity and is not a title which we should bestow upon the Mashiyah.

CHRESTOS = CHRIST

- According to Real encyclopaedie, the inscription Chrestos is to be seen on a Mithras relief in the Vatican. According to Christianity and Mythology, Osiris, the Sun God of Egypt, was also revered as Chrestos.
- According to a French theological dictionary, it is absolutely beyond doubt that Christus and Chrestus, and Christiani and Chrestiani were used indifferently by the profane Christian authors of the first two centuries AD. The word Christianos is a Latinism, being contributed neither by the Jews nor by the Christians themselves.

The titles 'Christ' given to Yahshua HaMashiyah and 'Christian' that we title ourselves with are both of pagan origin; deriving from words directly related to pagan rituals involving soothsayers, Pythian gods, oracles etc.

The Origin of the word 'Jesus'

- 'Je' translated into Greek is 'le'
- 'le' is Greek for 'Hail'
- 'Sus' or 'Sous' translated into Greek is 'Zeus'
- 'Jesus' when translated into Greek is 'lesous'
- 'lesous' in Greek means 'Hail Zeus'

- Therefore 'Jesus' etymologically stems from 'Zeus'; the chief pagan god of the ancient Greek Olympus.

- The Greeks used the ending -sus in naming many of their towns to give homage to their main deity Zeus. Thus, by following modern traditions, every time we utter the word 'Jesus', we are actually praising a pagan deity by saying 'Hail Zeus!'

ie = HAIL

sous or sus
= Zeus

Iesous
in Greek Means
"Hail Zeus."

"IESOUS" is Greek
For Jesus meaning -- "Hail Zeus"

Alexander Hislop, author of The Two Babylons, uncovers the Satanic counterfeiting of Dionysus, son of Zeus for the true son of Elohim, who takes away the sin of the world:

Now, this Babylonian god, known in Greece as "the sin-bearer," and in India as the "Victim-Man," among the Buddhists of the East, the original elements of whose system are clearly Babylonian, was commonly addressed as the "Savior of the world." It has been all along well enough known that the Greeks occasionally worshiped the supreme god under the title of "Zeus the Savior."... When it is known that "Zeus the Savior" was only a title of Dionysus, the "sin-bearing Bacchus," his character, as "The Savior," appears in quite a different light (Chapter 2, The Deification of the Child, Section 2, Sub-Section 5).

The link Hislop has uncovered between the pagan savior and sin-bearer with the name attributed to the biblical Savior and sin-bearer, in light of the similarity in the names of each, suggests that the Greek name Iaysous and its corresponding English transliteration, Jesus, are directly related to and derived from the Greek god Zeus and his son Dionysous.

In fact, what has really happened is as follows: The early community of believers was influenced by a number of factors as outlined in Samuele Bacchiocchi's book, From Sabbath To Sunday, to change their form of worship from a strictly scriptural model based upon the teaching of Yahusha and the Torah, to a radically different form of worship modeled after the pagan sun-god worship of Mithraism.

Just as Constantine changed the scriptural seventh-day Sabbath to first-day Sun worship, the scriptural holy days into the pagan holidays of Christmas and Easter, and the Torah based walk of faith into a de-Judaized anti-Torah lifestyle, even the very name of the Messiah was stripped of its Hebraic roots and source (Yahusha) and was paganized and Hellenized into the form which is fashioned after the name of their supreme deity Zeus (Sous) and his son, Dionyzeus (Dionysous). And in its final form it became layzeus (laysous). Then, unwitting English Bible translators transliterated the Greek layzeus (laysous) into Jesus.

THE TRUE NAME OF OUR MESSIAH

So to reiterate, our Messiyah's name was not Jesus or Christ. Not only do these words derive from paganism, but they do not even resemble Hebrew words, the letter 'J' doesn't even exist in the Hebrew alphabet, and was not even a part of the English alphabet until the 14th century.

Our Messiah was a Hebrew, a Jew and the Son of YHWH of Avraam Yitzchak and Yaakov and would never have been called 'Jesus' or 'Christ' during his life and I'm certain he wouldn't have appreciated being called 'Hail Zeus'. His true name was 'Yahshua' meaning 'Yah is salvation' or 'Yah is Saviour'. More formally known as 'Yahshua HaMashiach', meaning 'Yahshua, the Messiah'.

this shall be a sign G4592 to you; You shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling

"Why wasn't Yahshua named Immanuel?"

In the prophecy of the virgin birth, Isaiah 7:14, the prophet Isaiah declared, "Therefore YHWH Himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call Him Immanuel." This prophecy refers to the birth of Yahshua in Matthew 1:22-23, "All this took place to fulfill what YHWH had said through the prophet: 'The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel' which means, 'YHWH with us.'" This does not mean, however, that the Messyiah's name would actually be Immanuel.

There are many names given to Yahshua using the phrase "He shall be called," both in the Old and New Testaments. This was a common way of saying that people would refer to Him in these various ways. Isaiah prophesied of the Messiyah, "His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty Elohim, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6). None of these titles was Yahshuas' actual name, but these were descriptions people would use to refer to Him forever. Luke tells us Yahshua "shall be called the Son of the Highest" (Luke 1:32) and "son of YHWH" (1:35) and "the prophet of the Highest" (1:76), but none of these was His name.
